Who We Are

We are an Africa-rooted strategy advisory firm uniquely positioned to guide your continental success.

Inani Strategies' is a Strategy & Ops Advisory; Economic Research Analysis firm that differentiates on the basis of its roots in Africa and the depth of African knowledge and experience. We focus on the African facts and acknowledge the trust placed in African traditional business models and communities based business frameworks that complements and balances global best practices for effective and pragmatic African solutions. Inani by its name implies that our intention is to extract and deliver value to our clients and grassroots African communities, end users and the more sophisticated business and retail clients in the ecosystem to target and solve real prevailing business challenges stemming from the lack of depth in African insights. We seek to drive African business model innovation, addressing access to effective financial inclusion and wealth building and growing talent and skills in Africa to serve African and Global needs.

Inani (n; Value; Worth; Price)

- Multidisciplinary Depth: We are "Full-Stack" advisors. We bridge the gap between Macroeconomic Trends, Risk & Compliance, Financial Modelling, and Digital Architecture.
- Indigenous Innovation: We unearth local, undiscovered practices—especially in lending and credit—that global firms ignore. We help you find your "African Advantage."
- Speed to Value: Our intensive design cycle moves you from "Current State Chaos" to "Future State Blueprint" with care and speed.

Big Four pedigree. Director-led delivery. African soul.

Questions & Collaboration

Extracting Value. Designing the Future. Rooted in Africa.
